

LO: I have thought about my observations of different masks and rainforest animals and I have now designed my own rainforest mask. I have thought about the materials I will use and how I will create the distinctive features of the animal.

A simple, but effective design. Well Done!