Triple Trouble From The Pigs

In the early hours of yesterday, the 3 Little Pigs almost died. The Wolf had booked a lodge in the town of Swindon, near to the crime seen, at old Mac Donald's farm. As the Wolf was on his vacation, he decided to have a Pig feast. The Three Little Pigs had to fight for their lives, thank goodness for the invention of sturdy bricks.

The Three Little PIGS

To start us off the big bad wolf was spotted strolling though the Old Mac Donald's Farm, by Humty Dumpty wiled falling of the wall as the new spread round Old Mac Donald's Farm.

Paul, Percy Perky were sun bathing. Percy said "Why did that big bad Wolf try to kill use!"

A couple of hours later, blow down Paul's house made of hay

Paul fled too Percy's stick house the big bad wolf huffed and puffed and blow the stick house down.

The Wolf pounced and missed the two terrified pigs the pigs ran to their brother's house not knowing the wolf was hot on their trail.

As soon as the big bad Wolf got there, the Pigs were in side. The Wolf huffed and puffed but, the big bad Wolf could not blow the house down because it was made of brick.

So the wolf climb down the chimney but the pigs were not going to be followed by the Wolf so the Pigs put a boiling pot of water under the chimney the wolf climbed down and burnt his bum then suddenly shot out of the chimney landed on his head soon after, the police arrested him

The pigs had a drink and food to celebrate. Here's a little word from the Pigs "You're a faller WOLF!" So that is the end the Pigs lived haply ever after.
